Standards Assessment Verified

Retractable Banner Stands are designed to offer a portable and easy-to-use method of displaying printed graphics.

The SAV Rating involves comprehensive testing which takes into account quality and specifications of materials and components used in the construction of the stand, its ability to stand up to intended performance level when in use, the features that the stand offers, and it's overall usability.

Selecting the appropriate Retractable Banner Stand for its proposed use is essential and the SAV Rating helps determine which one is the right choice for the application.
